Migration occupations in Demand for Australia (MODL)

Australian Immigration - Migration Occupations in Demand for Australian Visa applications

The immigration laws are constantly on the change, and so are the occupations in demand by Australia. SA Associates keep it's finger on the pulse and will update this list accordingly.

The (Skilled) Migration Occupations in Demand List (MODL) below is a list of occupations which have been identified as being in demand in Australia. The MODL list is not to be confused with the Skilled Occupations List (SOL).

- People seeking to migrate to Australia on the basis of their work skills receive points if their nominated occupation is on the MODL list which is current at the time their application is assessed (not when their application is lodged).
- They receive extra points if they have a job offer in their nominated occupation from an organisation that has employed at least 10 people on a full-time basis for the previous two financial years.
- For an occupation in demand, but, with no job offer in Australia - 15 points
- For an occupation in demand, with a job offer (the employer must evidence that they employed no less than 10 people in the previous two financial years) in Australia - 20 points

Preparing for your Application

- This MODL is current at the time of publication. To receive extra points for a job offer, documentary evidence of the job offer should be included with an application. The organisation making the job offer must also indicate the number of people it has employed on a full-time basis for the previous two years. Please note that DIAC will make checks to verify the accuracy of this information.
- To be eligible for migration under the Skilled Independent Skilled Visa stream, your usual occupation, for which you can evidence suitable qualifications (degree, diploma, trade, skills and experience) must be included in the list of Approved Occupations for Migration.

IMPORTANT NEWS:

For details information about MODL list please browse www.immi.gov.au website and keep your code number in the code box.
